

Our Program Director, Concha Marchitelli

NH dance & drama program was started by Concha Marchitelli in 1991 and she continues to serve as the Center's director and administrator. Mrs. Marchitelli is joined by a staff of dedicated and enthusiastic dance and performing arts instructors.

We are excited to bring this opportunity to your child in a fun, loving, nourishing and enriching environment!

For Homeschooled Scholars

NHPAC Homeschooled Program is designed to:

- Fulfill you Prince George's county Arts and Humanities requirements through our program!
- Create diverse and exciting extracurricular activity for your homeschoolers social and community development.
- Provide a resource to a community based International Performing Arts program geared specifically towards homeschooled children
- Partner with homeschooling parents to provide artistic and academic support

CLASSES START OCTOBER 22, 2012 AND ARE 8 WEEK SESSIONS.

What we Offer!

We offer the following classes:

- BALLET FITNESS
- MODERN DANCE TECHNIQUE
- HIP HOP
- AFRICAN DANCE
- YOGA FIT
- TAP DANCE

The Homeschool Performing Arts Program at NHPAC was created to provide young people with quality training, educational enrichment and positive experiences in the performing arts. CONTACT US TODAY FOR REGISTRATION DETAILS!

7009 Varnum St, Landoevr Hills, MD 20784. Phone 202-286-2411
hsdance@newhopeacademy.org

Visit us online at <http://dance.newhopeacademy.org/>